August 2009

Wine of the Month

2008 Colorado Sangiovese

(Talbott Vineyard) $22

2008 is proving to be a very good year for Colorado Sangiovese. This wine has a brilliant garnet color that trumps the past vintages by far.

The aromas of vanilla and cream soda invite you to taste the fresh Bing cherry flavors that mingle with the youthful spicy tannins. We haven't seen this kind of color or flavor intensity in our Colorado Sangiovese for several years. We are very pleased to release this 2008 that will shine as one of the best vintages of Sangiovese for years to come. Enjoy it now while it's young and vibrant, but be sure to cellar some to enjoy as it matures and mellows.

Enjoy!
